

COMIN' OVER ME

(Thomas Camillot)

So listen baby, to what I'm saying Don't betray me, baby understand.
In the night I wonder why is it right to die for not understand So let me know why you cannot hold me tight anymore
and than you kiss my heart goodbye...
I'd better hurry up and dry my tears
I've always always tryed to save my dream
Oh, but since you've gone It's comin' over me
It's comin' over me
I'd better rock my soul inside of me
always step aside and start another dream
Oh, but untill I will be here alone
You'll always have a home.
Your face is here in front of me it make me see the things to understand Small room, small tune
the piano's askin' you to come back !...soon.
While theese walls
emits echoes in my mind
you don't hear
and than you kiss my heart goodbye...
I'd better hurry up and dry my tears
I've always always tryed to save my dream
Oh, but since you've gone It's comin' over me
It's comin' over me
I'd better rock my soul inside of me
always step aside and start another dream
Oh, but untill I will be here alone
You'll always have a home.
I'm sittin' on our dream
you see me
you're comin' over me.
I'm sittin' on our dream
you see me
you're comin' over me.
While theese walls
emits echoes in my mind
you must know...

that you'll always have a home...
I'd better hurry up and dry my tears
I've always always tried to save my dream
Oh, but since you've gone It's comin' over me
It's comin' over me
I'd better rock my soul inside of me
always step aside and start another dream
Oh, but untill I will be here alone
You'll always have a home.
I'm sittin' on our dream
you see me
you're comin' over me.
I'm sittin' on our dream
you see me
you're comin' over me.
